

Rimfire Challenge Match

When: Check the Club calendar

Where: Soda Springs Shooting Complex, Soda Springs, Idaho

Entry Fee: $5.00 for Adults - Kids 16 or under shoot free.

For more information Contact: Brian Wood 847-2678 or Vaughn Rasmussen 847-3053

Equipment: Any safe rifle and pistol chambered for .22 long rifle may be used with your choice of metallic or optical sights. The same guns shall be used throughout the course. No holsters required. All stages started from low ready position. There is a category for semi-auto rifles and pistols and a Cowboy category for single action pistols and lever action rifles with iron sights. Eye and Hearing protection is mandatory! Cold Range – load only when instructed to do so by the Range Officer.

Course of Fire: There will be a variety of stages. Each match may have different stages to keep it new and interesting. All stages are fired against the clock. Each stage will shot with pistol and rifle. All stages will require no more than 10 shots so reloads on the clock are not required. Each stage will be fired 5 times. More information can be found at <https://www.rimfirechallenge.org/>

Targets: Targets will be 5 - 7 steel plates at a maximum distance of 35 yards. One target will on a red post and is the stop plate. The stop plate must be shot last.

Scoring: The shooter's score will be the total time for the best 4 of the 5 stages plus any penalties. Time will be recorded from the start buzzer to the final shot of a stage. A two second penalty will be added to the shooter's time for each missed target.

Ammunition: 22 long rifle ammunition only, no 22 magnums allowed. Hyper velocity ammunition is discouraged to avoid excessive target damage. Approximately 100 rounds required.

Kids should have adult supervision. This is a fun shoot, there will not be prizes awarded due to the wide variety of equipment types and skill levels possible. However, shooters will be ranked within a metallic sight class and an any sight class for bragging rights. Remember: your toughest competition is yourself.
