

Wednesday Evening Matches

This is brief description of the Wednesday evening shoots. The best way to understand the Wednesday evening matches would be to attend one.

Any high caliber rifle can be used for the center fire targets.

100 yards – will be a one shot at a circle approximately the size of a nickel. You are allow to shoot some sighters.

200 yards- targets vary; small rock chucks, small crows, inch circle, or a target with candles and you are required to shoot the wick without hitting the flame or candle. The targets are scored for the best score. There are also some other targets that may be used.

300 yards- targets; rock chucks, bowling pins, crows, the targets are scored for the best score.

Any 22 long rifle rimfire.

This match can vary from the tightest group to the highest score. Is shoot usually at 50 yards

Military, AR15, lever action rifles

These matches can vary from week to week. They usually decide the week before ware other side matches they will shoot the next week.